

ABSTRACT

Generally, every college be in need of a club which associates with different fields like music, dance, painting and many more, which will be a stress buster to every student. It not only deviates our mind from daily routine activities but also boosts a lot of confidence in the young minds in order to cope up with the society. It brings about the hidden talents of the students which may even lay a platform for their future career. These will help the students to organise their time and schedule their tasks properly. So that they can have an active participation in many cultural, technical events that barely rise in today's running society, and thereby trying to ignite their young minds.
